

Key Stage 1. Introduction To Money and Resources

- What is money?
- Basic concept of buying and selling
- Understanding needs vs wants
- Simple jobs people do

"The Berenstain Bears' Trouble with Money"-Stan and Jan Berenstain
-"One cent, Two cents, Old Cent, New Cent: All About Money"-Bonnie Worth
"The Everything Kids' Money Book"-Brette McWhorter Sember

Key Stage 2. Basic Economics Concepts

- How goods and services are produced and consumed
- Basic supply and demand
- Simple market and dynamics
- Saving and investing money

"The Young Investor: Projects and Activities for Making Your Money Grow"-Katherine R. Bateman
"Whatever Happened to Penny Candy?"-Richard J. Maybury
"A Smart Girl's Guide: Money Nancy Holyoke

Key Stage 3. Introduction To Economic Systems

- Different types of economic systems (capitalization, socialism)
- Introduction to the stock market
- Role of banks and financial institutions
- Basic economic indicators (GDP, inflation)
- The concept of taxes and government spending

"The Complete Idiot's Guide to Economics"- Tom Gorman
"Economics: A very short Introduction"-Partha Dasgupta
"What is Money Away? Why Dollars and Coins Have Value"-Jennifer S. Larson

O Level / GCSE Economics- Foundation of Economics

- Demand , supply, and market equilibrium
- Economic roles of government
- National income and economic welfare
- Money and banking
- Basic international trade and exchange rates

"Cambridge IGCSE and O Level Economics"-Paul Hoang
"GCSE Economics for AQA"- Jim Riley
"Edexcel International GCSE Economics Revision Guide"-Rob Jones

AS Level Economics -Intermediate Economic Theory

- Microeconomics: Market failure, externalities
- Macroeconomics: Fiscal and monetary policy
- Labour markets
- Costs of production
- Economic growth and development

"Economics for AS Level"-Alain Anderton
"AS Economics"- Andrew Gillespie
"Cambridge International AS and A level Economics"-Colin Bamford and Susan Grant

A level Economics- Advanced Economic Analysis

- Advanced theories in micro and macroeconomics
- Detailed studies on globalization and trade policies
- Financial markets and institutions
- Economics crises and policy responses
- Econometrics and applied statistics

"A Level Economics for Edexcel"-Alain Anderton
"AQA A Level Economics"-Ray Powell and James Powell
"Economics: Principles, Problems, & Policies"-Campbell McConnell, Stanley Brue, and Sean Flynn